

Preschool follows holistic approach which make students more critical, confident and independent. This approach aims to make learning a process of self-improvement that explicitly recognizes the self, the social context of learning, teaching and recognizing the needs of the individual learner.

